Cio Lass or Hanges Guister; Mason Brothers, N. Y The Live or P. T. Ballan; J. S. Redfield, N. Y. Both of there books have been bitherto recently national although briefly, in our colonius, and they are for sale by all the booksellers. They deser e more notice, and we proceed to give it. They are contrasts-opposites-in every respect ; the ene is by an admirer of the great and good qualities of his subject, the other by the subject himself. The one is full of lessons of honearly, love of justice, subsistence upon honest carning, thriving amidst opposition, working against wrong prejudices, the success of truth over talselsood, and of plain, outspoken, sincera urder der a'cles are un reually full ity. Such is the Life of Herace Greeley. The The Horse of Regressintatives other is as full of lessons of dishonesty, small the rest of their suffering brethren. With Danchenting growing daily, piling up and storing away of others carnings, thriving because people fully, of ial-chood and awindling triumphant, and of glaring contessions of duplicity and hypocri-. s and , other Markets of Saurday and cy. Such is the Life of P. T. Barnum.

From first to last, through the former, we have a New England youth, born and living in youth in poverty, emuloes of knowledge, ambitious yet a to git to reach on. We have bonest, working his way stendly to a high poand f to Made son, the train due at setion, respected by all, wielding an immense afficence for good, and rich in wordly goods honestly carned. So, from first to last, through the latter, we have another New England youth, who in his lat--or days chuckles as he related the small tricks of his boyhood, and the stale jokes of the roadside grocery, whose ambition it was to "get muney, honestly if it might be, but at all events to get money." who caught the popular folly of the moment, and throve upon it; who confesses to the most magnificent swindles, increas ing with his years, with infinite coolness, and who is rich in money carned by chesting a people who love to be chested.

The one man is to be admired and respected and to be held up as an example to the young can of our country to whom this record of his life is dedicated. The other man is to be gazed at as a marvel of curning munagement, sherp at bargains, quick at perceiving and uneccupations in using the means of getting money; s soan who would preach a sermon on a Sunday in order to draw apertators to his buffoon ery on the Munday, who tells the story of his windles with a winning grace, and assures you I the while that he " has always been a diligen reader of the libbe" -in short a man to be held up as a warning to the youth of the land. Let the books, then, go out, side by side, and he read and their lessons pondered. At sure as notb, and honesty, and sincerity, and perseverance in labor of the mind and bands, are better than falsehood, and knavery, and hypocd y, and dodging the world over for expedients to make money without labor, so surely will the good in the one book more than counterbalance the evil in the other. The Example and the Warning are both timely.

FUGITIVE SLAVIS IN CANADA.

Maryland Cossishle Taying to Corcupt the Sheriff of Montreal, Negret of Montreal Creette, January 13, 1855.

Oan Such Things at 2—A Proposition for Autonoping !—We were yesterday (the day of its reception) firmshed with a copy of the subjoined letter. We lay it before our readers for their chilghtenness with regard to the encreachments of the states of their own. Union into a heating ground for fugitive slaves—not content with timing the free states of their own. Union into a heating ground for fugitive slaves—not content with two-posing a law upon the country which makes every freemen in the United States legally bound to be adong and assisting the slave-bod ders in recovering their man-chattels, they venture to pursue their game still further, and to attempt to tarnish free and unstained British ground with their damning traffic in them.

Our readers were informed last summer of an attempt made in Upper Canada similar to that proposed by this ruffian Pope, which was signally disconfitted after it had proceeded so far as to amount to an overt act of kidnapping, as well as of the project to entice away a fugitive slave in the employ of R. H. Stephens, Esq. of this city, which was also prangely met and defeated. We have now a cool project from a Maryland constable and slave-huntertu the head of our police force, asking him to break the laws of God and his country, and become I rum the Montreal Gazette, January 13, 1855.

Owing to unusual demands upon our space and time, our intended notice of this gentleman's lecture before the Young Mea's Association, on Friday evening, failed to appear in yesterday's paper, and although it is now rather late, as an item of nows, we should econ warting in a sense of justice to Mr. King and the Association, if we said nothing about the most brilliant and best lecture of the course. It was happy throughout, even to its outside triangements. Mr. King was unable to make any engagements here, except to lecture on the same vening of his arrival, but our Committee decided to take the risk, and thanks to the effective aid of the Superintendent and Conductors of the M. & M. Rail Road, ponchally at the appointed hour, all auxieties on the part of the audience as to his serival were allayed, and Mr. Kise annamed his subject to the best audience of the course. In person, he is slight and young-lookng and erestes a feeling of disappointment in those of his audience who have not yet learned to discriminate between " substance and shore," which disappointment is at once relieved by the flash of his eye and the determination of his mouth and gives place as he proceeds, with his lecture, in a voice strong and molodions and with the manner of no erntor, to a feeling of complete and unbounded satisfaction which fastens his audience in perfect attention until the end of his lecture. We have no time, nor do we consider it in place, to give any elaborate synopsis or bstract of the lecture, which all of our readers should have heard for themselves, but we are sure that our Association have hereafter only to anounce the name of T. Afterwards the King hawing made an image of gold and set it up, commanded all men, at a certain time which should be proclaimed through out the land, to bow down and worship this image. This was demanded, not only at the peril of liberty, but of life. The King knew that the religion of the Hebrews forbade idelatry. The dasign was to compel these worshippers of the true Gold to do that which their conscience prolitioned. Here was a successful appeal to the "High-ER LAW," and it wen light. No King-no goveroment, - has any right to make laws which set suide the Divine. If this is done—the duty of the people is cless not to obey. The Hebrews regarded not the mandate of the King. They refused at the poril of lite, and God sustained the right. They worshipped not the image. Informers were not wanting who complained of this act of disobedience: They were summoned into the presence of the King, where they gave the memorable answer contained in the text. It was a high-a noble resolution |--The answer being given, the King was greatly incensed. The cruel edict must be enforced.

To all human appearance the fate of these mon was scaled, but they shrank not from their duty. Courageously did they de-termine to "bide the audit." Many among their rountrymen, perhaps, might then have been found who would have yielded the point. They might have argued "we are in the King's power. He has been very kind to us. We have been promoted above our kindred and even many of his own people. It might be best to yield in this instance. It will give us greater influence and we may by and bye, he of more service to our people. We will bow down to the golden image, but will not worship with our hearts. There will be a mental reservation, which will be known to God, and he will excuse the homers of our bodies. We are in great peril, and our lives are of too much value to our captured countrymen to be hastily thrown away. The mandate is now the law of the land. Its authority must be respected. Oan Suce Tennous & -A Proposition for Audnapping !—We were yesterday (the day of its reception) farmshed with a copy of the subjinited latter. We lay it before our readers for their enlightenment with regard to the eucloachments of the slave power. Not content with tuning the free states of their own Union into a hearing ground for furtive alevas—not content with inground for fugitive glaves -- not content with 100 free states of their own Union into a meating ground for fugitive slaves—not content with imposing a law upon the country which makes every freeman in the United States legally bound to be adding and assisting the slave-ho ders in recovering their man-chatiels, they venture to pursue their game still further, and to attempt to tarnish free and unstained British ground with their damning traitie in them.

Our readers were informed last summer of an attempt made in Upper Camada similar to that proposed by this ruftian Pope, which was signally discombitted after it had proceeded so far as to amount to an overt act of kidnapping, as well as of the project to entice away a fugitive slave in the employ of R. H. Stephens, Esq. of this city, which was also promptly met and defeated. We have now a coal project from a Maryland constable nod slave-hunter to the head of our police force, asking him to break the lawe of God and hav country, and become a partner in a wholesale scheme, to kidnap the poor colored men who have taken refuge among us. We know not whether Mr. Haye intends suswering this most insulting epistelekt all; but if he does, we know what his answer will be.

T. Starr King. Owing to unusual demands upon our space and time, our intended notice of this gentleman's lecture before the Young Men's Association, on Friday evening, failed to appear in vesterday's hour, all anxieties on the part of the audience as to his arrival were allayed, and Mr. Kine announced his subject to the best audience of the ourse. In person, he is slight and young-lookiog and creates a feeling of disappointment in those of his audience who have not yet learned to descriminate between " substance and show," which disappointment is at core relieved by the flash of his eye and the determination of his mouth and gives place as he proceeds, with his lecture, in a voice strong and melodious and with the manner of an orator, to a feeling of complete and unbounded satisfaction which fasters his audience in periect attention until the end o iis lecture. We have no time, nor do we consid-

Dear Sir: liaving had the pleasure of performing upon Geo Hew American Acid on Pleas at the World's Fair in this city he present year, and other of his Plance is your Wareroum, which afforded me much grathentlon, I choserally recommend them to the public. I have say glad of the improvement in the acid on. These lateroum must likewise are of excellent thate, owing, no doubt, to he profession of the scales.

We would resign the passengers in the acid of the profession of the scales.

We have the profession of the scales.

In the Canada from Paris, says that Mr. Mason was in a very critical condition, and great fears were entertained for him. One-half of his body was paralyzed, and he was only rational at intervals.

From the during had the pleasure of performing upon Geo Scale and the pleasure of performing upon Geo Scale and the pleasure of performing upon Geo George Plance of the Plance of and return bome.

Further of the Rail Road Riot. Buffale, Jan. 20. This P. M. about 3 o'clock, a riot occurred on the Buffalo and Brantford & Goderich Railway, at Ridgeway, C. W., about 20 miles from this city. It appears that for several months past the laborers on the road have not been fully paid their wages, and a few weeks ago gave netice that today they would spike down the switches and take cherge of the road if remaining unpaid .-They accordingly spiked down the track and opened a break of 2 rods at Ridgeway.

The chief officer of the road is understood to have hired about 25 men of this city, armed them In teatmony whereon, I have neground see my in an un-plaint, this 5th day of Jacobary, 1855.

that the road. On arriving, they went of and protect the road. On arriving, they were fired upon by the laborers, who were also armed with rifles. A regular fight ensened, in which the Buffale party fared the worst, one of their me named Simon Wemple, being killed and two or three others wounded, one supposed dangerously. Two or three laborers were also wounded. The officer's party, however, succeeded in arresting about a dozen rioters. Among them is believed te be the man who shot Wemple. Irons were sent for from this city, to secure the rioters. We have no further particulars, as none of the party engaged have returned.
